

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AH&T's 18th Annual Charity Golf Tournament Raises $25,000 to Benefit the Loudoun Boys & Girls Club

Leesburg, VA – December 13, 2007 – AH&T's 18th Annual Charity Golf Tournament was a huge success this year, exceeding expectations for participation and donations. Over one hundred area residents and businesses and several national insurance companies participated. The event took place on October 2, 2007 at the Piedmont Club in Haymarket, VA and raised $25,000 for the Loudoun Boys & Girls Club.

Charlene Johnson, Chief Professional Officer of the Loudoun Boys & Girls Club, accepted the large donation. The Loudoun Boys & Girls Club provides programs and services to the children of Loudoun County to promote and enhance development by instilling a sense of competence, usefulness, belonging and influence.

The Tournament was coordinated by Dorothy Kidwell and a committee of AH&T staff volunteers. Howard Armfield, Chairman of AH&T remarked, "The work of the Loudoun Boys & Girls Club is so necessary to this community. AH&T has been serving the Loudoun community since 1921 and we are please to continue to make a difference here in Loudoun County."
